

Environmental, Social and Economic Setting

Part A provides details on the values and assets of public land in the study area, including biophysical, socio-economic, Indigenous land associations and historical aspects of the study area.